

112 words

JOSEPH NAPPI, JR., born Syracuse, New York, December 9, 1942; admitted to bar, 1972, Washington and U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Washington; 1974; U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington; 1978, U.S. Court of Federal Claims. Education: Marquette University and Gonzaga University (B.A., 1967); Gonzaga University (J.D., 1972). Member: Board of Advisors, Gonzaga School of Law. Instructor: Remedies (1974-1976) and Corporations (1993-1994). Arbitrator, Superior Court. Member, Panel of Arbitrators, American Arbitration Association. Member: Spokane County, Washington State (Member: Committee of Bar Examiners, 1979----; WSBA Board of Governors, 1991-1994; Chairman, Insurance Trust) and Federal Bar Associations. PRACTICE AREAS: Civil and Criminal Litigation; Medical and Legal Malpractice Defense; Business and Corporate Law.